

L. Jones Speaker At Joint Dinner Of BPW Clubs Tues.

Belle Glade Business and Professional Women Club and the Pahokee Club at a covered dish dinner Tuesday night when Herald Publisher Luther Jones showed the two clubs colored slides of scenes behind the Iron Curtain and told his impressions of conditions there from his recent People-To-People Agricultural tour.

Mr. Jones pointed out that there are no half-way communists, that they are either wholehearted party members or they are NOT of the communist party at all. "Don't kid yourself that the Russians aren't making tremendous progress," he said, "that people never had it so good and while their standard of living can not touch ours they're enthused with past results and promises for the future."

He informed the group that while it was difficult to converse with older Russian people, most any young child they contacted could speak English. He particularly emphasized his opinion of the great need in America that young students be required to study a foreign language — namely Spanish, as America's greatest weapon to fight communism in the western hemisphere.

A number of years ago the Belle Glade Negro Women's Civic League purchased a lot near the Carver Memorial Hospital for just such an undertaking, and the lot is available for that purpose.

The brochure will say "The day nursery in the labor center is filled to capacity in serving those families who live there; the present care for pre-school negro children of working mothers living in Belle Glade is inadequate for the small children agricultural work."

year's team. The line is somewhat questionable because so many of the boys lack needed experience. Actually we won't be able to tell how good the team is until after the first game.

"The loss of Bootsy Weather," commented Coach Davis, "will be a terrific blow to the team. The other boys will need to work hard to make up for him. Weathers was in charge of punting and was to be first team defense and alternate offense. Pat Gilbert, a sophomore will probably take Weathers' place on offense while Charlie Thompson will help fill his position on defense."

"We're still working on offensive timing," Coach Burke commented, "and expect to see more passing this year."

Vero's fine group of backs will put Coach Burke's defense team on an early test.

Johnny Dell, senior end, was rated player of the week. He has been very impressive in practice, the Coach reported.

Dell, playing both offense and defense, is one of the three linemen returning from last year's team.

This is Johnny's fourth year out for football. "He has always had a good attitude, is an easy guy to coach, well liked by the student body and is a good student," the Coach said.

"Good Picture" Of Church Affiliation Revealed By Survey And Census Taken

More than 1300 homes were called on by volunteer workers during the Church Survey and Census conducted in Belle Glade on September 8. The chairman of the survey, the Rev. Luther Key, called it an unqualified success and said that the results gave the ministers of the community a "good picture" of the church and religious affiliation of Belle Glade citizens.

Of the more than 1300 homes visited the workers found more than three-fourths of the families at home during the hours of the survey. Only 300 cards were returned by workers with the notation that the persons were not at home.

648 family units indicated that they were members of or attended one of the churches in Belle Glade. If the families of Belle Glade are "average families" this means that approximately 2200 people in the city claim to church membership in one of the local churches.

359 families did not claim church membership but indicated a preference for a particular denomination in the community.

What nostalgic memories this picture brings. Every Sunday morning we used to drive to Church in Pop's old "fiver," picking up the Parson on the way.

Today I live in a great city. I ride commuter's trains, and dictate letters, and spend endless hours "in conference."

But I've never forgotten our Church in the field. It plowed deep furrows in my life, and planted the seeds of real happiness.

Now I worship in a big city church. You might think it would be different; but it isn't. Folks are just as friendly. The Truth is just the same. And God is just as close.

You see, in the country or in the city, Christians are conscientious people trying to be better. And for folks like you and me who worship God, the Church—big or little—is home.

From The Faculty

I want to express my appreciation to the student body for the effort that each person seems to be putting forth in getting the school year off to a good start. I have never worked with a group who seemed to be as ready to get started with school work. One need only walk down any hall to see the evidence of serious study.

This is as it should be. Time is the most valuable thing that each of us possesses as a student, teacher, administrator, doctor, lawyer, merchant, or member of any other profession or trade. It is only through the profitable use of our time that we are able to maintain our standard of living and acquire those material things which we desire. Our public school years are the formative years of our life. We have gained a foundation for future educational or vocational training which, by the nature of our determined effort of profitable utilization of our time, practically assures success.

If we are to maintain our reputation of having the Best Football Team in the Suncoast Conference, the Best School in South Florida, and the Best Student Body in the nation, we must not allow ourselves to slow down or become complacent.

W. R. Groover.

Bootsey "Under The Weather"

Bootsey Weathers is recuperating from a broken leg which he suffered during football practice Wednesday, September 11. He remained in the hospital until Monday when he was taken home by his parents. He is expected to have his leg in a cast for 12 weeks and will be eliminated from playing football. Bootsey, a senior in high school, was expected to play first string defense and alternate offense on the Rams team.

Gossiping Gandy

Have you heard the latest... What's this we hear about the mailman visiting Sharon A. quite frequently and with little items from Arkansas... from one of our spies we hear it's starting all over again for Claudia and Rob. May be we should ask Claudia.

Not only are the girls around campus seeing if blondes have more fun but the guys are too... how about that Don, Bobby and Eddie? ... North Carolina, from what we hear, seems to be full of goodies. Right, Evelyn and Eddie? ... Who won the medicine dropper battle in Chem Study George P. and Ernesto? ... Who's that in the red car that Gallyn C. goes out to see during lunch? We hear that Leah P. has been getting letters every day all the way from West Palm. Who in the world are they from, Leah?

We hear that Freddie W. and Gerald W. are really rocking out at ten town and the bowling alley these days. They both go for those older women. Attention students: WE HAVE DISCOVERED A WATER FOUNTAIN IN THE SCHOOL THAT WORKS! When you see a line a mile long, you've found it. We've seen Vonnie R. and Ronnie M. together in the halls quite a lot lately. ... Sure did hate to see the Boyer boys leave this year. ... We hear Davene W. and Jan C. have been taking turns driving the lunch bus to the Polar Bear. ...

There are rumors that Billie G. had a birthday party in her birthday suit at Knight's "Municipal" Pool Friday night. The dance Saturday night was a big success. Gary Walker's foot got caught in his mouth when he requested a favorite song. Seems like Eddie, Roy, Bert and Dick were really giving their dates a hard time. Sherry, Laura, Marilyn and Cheryl didn't seem to care too much—did they?

Tough Enough

As the weather gets cooler, the look around the campus is beginning to look something like this: A gray-tweed knee-length skirt and ivory oxford cloth shirt combine with a burgandy wool vest to make a striking outfit. Black tasseled loafers and a pretty smile add just the right finishing touch.

Our Apologies

In our last edition of the Ram-Page we failed to mention in introducing Mr. Jones, the new agriculture teacher, that he was a former resident of Belle Glade and graduated from Belle Glade High School. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Jones, reside at 124 S. W. 16th Street.

The Fourth "R" Needed In Education

By Dale Henderson
For several weeks a column has appeared in the Miami Herald called: The People Speak. One topic discussed was called "The Fourth 'R' Needed in Education," from which I have derived this article.

This year thousands of students have entered the portals of learning to absorb the fundamentals of learning. "Will their education be complete?"

Oldtimers frequently disagree with the modernist on the question of whether or not children are as well educated today as they were many years ago. The oldtimers extol the virtues of the old-fashioned three "R's": the basic rudiments of education—reading, riting, and rithmetic. The modernist will praise the enriched curriculum followed in most schools today—art, appreciation, music, crafts, social studies; mentioned also are project methods, film strips, and television. In a real sense both schools of thought are correct. But with all of these courses offered, there is still one "R" missing. It has to do with moral education and would very likely be approved by both old timers and modernists.

If education is to guide virtue and to eliminate vice, then a fourth "R" must be taught both in school and at home. This fourth "R" will satisfy both the oldtimer and the progressive educator. The fourth "R" is respect: respect for parents, respect for teachers, respect for authority, respect for one another and respect for oneself. Often the concept of respect is absent from the home, is omitted in the classroom, and has

New English Class Added To Curriculum

An Honors or Accelerated Group in English has been developed for the first time this year. It was established to present a wider variety of material at a more rapid pace with special attention on writing and vocabulary. This course is aimed primarily at those students who plan to attend college. The regular English IV textbooks will be used, along with supplementary materials. Mrs. Carl Hill is the teacher.

Future Nurses Club Reorganized

The Future Nurses Club has been renamed Para Medics, and an invitation is being extended to the boys to join. High school students interested in any field of medicine who would like to become members are asked to sign the sheets of paper which will be in the food lab and on the bulletin board across from the school store.

A winner roster will highlight the initiation activities on October 3rd, beginning at 5 p. m. at the lake.

almost disappeared in human relations. There is a desperate need for the return of respect to its proper place among peoples everywhere. Who are we to neglect it? Learning respect for others teaches the good way of life. Education means more than laws, and dates; it should teach the moral and ethical laws of life, such as respect, which is the key that unlocks many doors whose locks yield to it alone. Respect is welcomed everywhere: in the home, at school, in government, and in international offices. Respect turns a look into a smile, a house into a home, and a people into a civilization.

Rams Will Miss Bootsey At Opening Game

OFFENSIVE LINE—Til Hill, Vic Venos, Steve Halbrook, Jimmy Johnson, Emmett Trammell, Don Abel, Johnny Bell.

The Rams have lost a valuable Senior football player in Bootsey Weathers, 15, (center). Bootsey was slated to start as a defensive halfback and was also the team's best punter.

Bootsey had looked very impressive this season before breaking his leg during a game scrimmage last week.

"We plan to take Bootsey on all of our trips this year and feel that he will be a moral booster to the team," Coach Burke said.

Our American Heritage

By Mickey McKee

"That this nation, under God..."

What do the words, American Heritage, mean to you as a sovereign citizens of the United States and the source of the authority of our government. Do you realize that upon your shoulders lies the preservation of this great boon of freedom for which others have paid so dearly?

Our fathers came to this continent from many lands. Some of them were hungry. ... Some of them did not have enough clothing to cover them and were cold. ... Some of them had been threatened and oppressed in the old world, but they had the devotion and loyalty, of a true American, to go on to fight for the opportunity to work and acquire property, for freedom to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences, for freedom of speech, and freedom from imprisonment without a fair trial.

Today, as we American, are heaven-blessed to live on this land, the land our forefathers founded so many years ago. It is the richest and most beautiful continent in the world. Here nature has lavished its most bounteous gifts. We have great oceans, sun-bathed beaches, majestic mountains, mighty rivers, placid lakes, boundless forests, fertile plains, rolling prairies, and an ideal climate.

Upon this land of plenty we have erected more prosperous cities than can be found anywhere else. Our towering skyscrapers, our industrial centers, and our efficient methods of mass production amaze all other peoples. We have more miles of railroads, more hospitals, more paved highways, more automobiles, more radios, movies, more fine schools, more commercial and private airplanes, more newspapers, magazines, libraries, and more gold than any other country in the world. Our homes are the most modern of all. ... Have you ever stopped to think that all of this comes from our American Heritage?

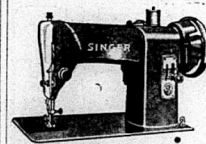

The heritage of our liberty and freedom creates our human rights, both economic and political.

Our economic rights, such as the right of the individual to own private property, the right of the individual to seek the kind of gainful employment he chooses, and our political rights, such as freedom of speech and freedom of religion are rights that are not recognized by all countries. They are recognized in countries we think of as constitutional democracies. America, being the greatest of the democratic countries, has set the goal for many nations to follow.

Our government in the future will be as good as we make it! This great inheritance of democracy and self-government, which is now ours, is the product of untold sacrifices. For centuries men have fought and labored through long and tortuous years that the rights which we now enjoy might be ours. Under our system we entrust this precious heritage in the hands of the people themselves.

The American dream came from the hearts and burdened souls of millions from all nations. It came from the hopes and aspirations of human beings throughout the centuries. America is not perfect, but the democratic ideal has sustained our Nation since its beginning. In our daily practices we have on many occasions fallen short of the ideal, but in the long run we have been moving in the direction of our goal. We must continue to move in that direction.

Cheerleaders ready For Football Season

Not only does Belle Glade have a football team, but they also have a fine group of cheerleaders to cheer them to victory. In spite of this being her first year as cheerleader, Sherry Knight, a sophomore, is captain of the squad. Cecelia Mathis, the only Senior, has had two years of experience; one year of "B" string cheering and one year of Varsity cheering. Janet Critchfield, a Junior, once captain of the "B" string squad, is serving her second year of Varsity cheering. Constance Rogers, having had one year of "B" string cheering, is also in her second year of Varsity cheering. Janet Critchfield, a Junior, is a first year cheerleader on the squad. She was an eighth grade cheerleader at South Bay, and Dee Mikovsky, a sophomore, last years "B" string captain, completes the cheering squad.

Practice started August 15, and since then, the cheerleaders have been practicing hard every weekday afternoon in preparation for this season's cheering. Pictured from left to right, Janet Critchfield, Sherry Knight, Dee Mikovsky, Lynda Long, Yonville Rogers and Cecelia Mathis.

WANT BETTER GRADES? Sleep your way to them! No, not in the classroom, but in your own bed at night. Fatigue caused by lack of sufficient sleep is responsible for many failures in school, according to researchers. That's understandable because if you are tired, you can't concentrate. Allow for at least nine hours' sleep at night; ten is much better. And remember to open the window in your bedroom so that you get plenty of fresh air without drafts.

If you wish to gain a reputation for being closemouthed, make a practice of telling only your joys.

"Strike up the Band." That is what seventy-eight band members are planning to do tomorrow night when the Belle Glade Golden Rams meet the Vero Beach Indians in the first away game of the season.

The new drum major, Buddy Bender, will lead the band in military maneuvers featuring the music from the motion picture EXODUS.

Jo Vickers is a newcomer to the squad of majorettes joining Lee Ann Berryhill, Beverly Steele, Terry McWhorter, Eleanor Collier, Ann Williams, Sherry Hill and head majorette, Cherry Bridges. These girls will enliven the festivities of the half time show.

"Appearing during halftime activities at football games, the Christmas Parade in West Palm Beach, playing at numerous concerts and the district and state contests will keep the band members on their toes," according to director Fred Stevens.

The band is especially proud this year to have completed arrangements for sponsoring the Air Force Band and the Singing Sergeants on Wednesday, November 13, at the local gym. All those who were fortunate enough to have heard the concert given by service bands here in Belle Glade in former years, will need no urging to attend.

A Good Year Ahead For The Pep Club

The Pep Club conducted a first meeting of this new school year Thursday 12. The members present elected the following officers: President, Kay Campbell; Vice-President, Alice Rashley; Secretary-Treasurer, Kathy Zwicki; Projects, Connie Bacon. Kay is beginning her second year as president.

The Pep Club feels sure that this will be a very good year for the Rams and also, an exciting one for the club.

During the year the club has money making projects which include selling megaphones and pennants. Around Christmas time, members sell Christmas cards and small Christmas gifts, and throughout the year games are sponsored by the club. With this money the Pep Club sponsors the Varsity Cheerleaders and pays their expenses.

All students in grades seven through twelve are urged to join. Members must maintain a "C" average, be hardworkers and good supporters of the team.

Every child knows he is going to be a little better parent than either of his parents — until he tries.

Go! Fight! Win!

Burke's Battlers Bomb Success! Belle Glade Better Than Miami High?

Rams Confound Champions! Rams Hold Fight Wins; Two To Go!

These are just a few of the exciting headlines that the Belle Glade High School Fighting Rams' made last year. For the first time in the history of Belle Glade, the Rams were conference champions. What made this possible? What pushed the boys just a little harder than he has been in the past? Spirit is the key word! Spirit can do it every time!

But just where does his spirit come from? Pep rallies and car parades bring it out in the open, but for it really to do any good it has to be in the hearts and minds of all the students of B. G. H. S.

Some of the outward signs of spirit are wearing blue and gold, yelling with the cheerleaders, and supporting the band by clapping hands with the rhythm of the music. Members of the club.

Of course the biggest battle to beat the other team will take place on the field. The other part will take place in the gym during pep rallies, in the car parades, and in the stands during the game. If the Rams know the students are behind them they surely will try to do their very best.

Belle Glade can be at the top of the conference ladder if it is supported with pep, energy, NOISE, and last, but not least, spirit.

Relax Freshman — They're All Over

State wide aptitude tests were given to the Freshman class last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings. These tests were selected for the state by Florida principals, superintendents, and advisors. Florida State University's testing service prints these and handles all the processing of scores. Given in two parts, they include:

1. School and College aptitude tests, and 2. Metropolitan Achievement tests.

Their purpose is to enable guidance and instruction to be adaptable to each individual's needs. As well as finding the objective measures of the student's current achievement, it gives him a way of measuring each pupil's capacity or achievement in a school program.

One cannot and should not prepare for these tests. And, teachers, you don't have to worry about being blamed for bad teaching — the scores can't judge what has been taught if a student doesn't do too well in a certain subject field!

Lotta Problems

Dear Lotta:
I don't know why I can't get a girl to go out with me more than once. I am handsome, neat, a good dancer, come from a good family, have a sharp convertible. I am also very smart and can carry on a conversation with almost anyone. I have thought and thought and still can't find anything wrong with me. What can I do?
Wonderful

Dear Wonderful:

Dear Lotta:
I love madras, but my mother refuses to let me have any because they bleed and she has to wash them by hand. What shall I do?

Jnior Varsity Game

The offensive line up is as follows: left-end Tony Latour; left tackle Buddy Worth; left guard Larry Bowen; center, John Banford; right-guard Riley Foster; right-tackle, Ray Sullivan; right-end, Jerry Perkins; quarter-back Mickey McCabe; left half back Gary Walker; right half back John Lee Henderson; full back Bobby Muller. On the defensive line up there is left-end Jerry Perkins; left-tackle Ray Sullivan; middle-guard Wayne Partain; right-tackle John Banford; right-end Rickey Kruse; left-half-backer Bobby Muller; middle-left-backer Mike Shivers; right-left-backer John Brown Evans; left-half-back Pat Gilbert; right-half back Gary Walker; safety John Lee Henderson.

Special recognition goes to Mr. Emory Bowers, who replaced Mr. Luke as line coach. Mr. Bowers has taught math in B. G. H. S. for the past five years. Some of the courses he is teaching are trigonometry, algebra II, plane geometry, and the new G. M. S. G. math course.

Library

During the past school year, 1780 books were added to the school library. We now have a total of approximately 6000 books.

The school board last year made an allocation of two thousand dollars to establish a basic book collection for the Junior High library. These books are to be housed in the Senior high library until space is available in the not yet completed Junior high school.

The Science Collection of books has been increased by the funds received from the National Defense Education Act. The new course, Americanism vs. Communism, brought an addition of approximately 130 new books.

The library hours for the year are from 8 o'clock in the morning to 3:45 in the afternoon. The library is also open during lunch hour and the break. In addition, if special requests are sent in, the library will be open at night for classes.

The library subscribes to approximately thirty magazines which cover all activities that would be of interest to all the students. Also, due to the popularity of certain magazines that wear out when first received, any donations of the following magazines will be greatly appreciated: Rot Rod, National Geographic, Saturday Review of Literature, American Heritage, Farm Journal, High Fidelity, Boy's Life, Missiles and Rockets, Natural History, and Popular Electronics. In addition, four newspapers which are widely read are taken. These are: The New York Times, Miami Herald, Palm Beach Post and the Belle Glade Herald.

All hands love an automatic electric dishwasher

It ends dishpan drudgery forever! Ends the monotonous daily chore in one-third the time... without wetting a finger. Eliminates arguments over who'll do the dishes. Costs very little to operate.

Protect your family's health! An electric dishwasher pre-rinses, washes, and rinses in swirling water so hot it actually sanitizes... then dries everything sparkling bright... automatically.

See them in color and choice of styles — counter, under the counter, and roll-around portable — at your appliance dealer or plumbing contractor.

Just flip a switch... dishes are done!

NO MORE GARRAGE MESSES! An electric food waste disposer is the perfect match for a dishwasher. No soggy paper bags, unpleasant odors, and reduces trips outdoors.

There's no match for flameless electric living.
